We are a growing medical practice that has added several new staff members in the last year. Allstaff has been a blessing to work with. It is wonderful to be able to pick up the phone and tell them what kind of person we need and they just send them over. Allstaff does the background checks, skill testing and pretty much anything you ask of them. We have found all the staff at Allstaff to be friendly, understanding of our needs and extremely helpful. We normally interview the applicants sent by Allstaff, however, we have found their recommendations are usually the best. Allstaff has certainly been a tremendous help in filling all our staffing needs.
